A SONG FOR US

Together we've studied to prepare us for this time;
A time when we'd step out into the world.
And together we've faced problems that fell upon our way;
And shaped us into what we are today.

And when you've found a place in the world somewhere,
Remember all the good times that we've shared.

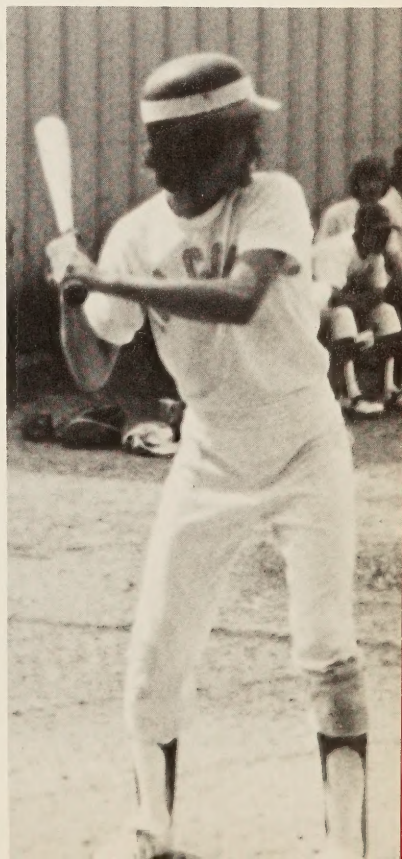

Of all the things that must be done, I hate to say goodbye;
But some of us will soon be gone away.
And when reminiscing in the evening and it's late,
In your heart you'll know that we were great.

And when you've found a place in the world somewhere,
Remember all the good times that we've shared.

Thanks to all you teachers who taught us patiently;
I know that patience often we've tried.
And although we complained when you handed out that test,
As far as we're concerned, you're the best.

And when you've found a place in the world somewhere,
Remember all the good times that we've shared.

— Brian Presson

DEDICATION — MRS. ANN G. MARCH

We dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Ann G. March, who has given us all a part of her wisdom and love. But mostly she has helped all of us gain more school spirit and pride to make A.C.H.S. what it should be. She has given three years of her time to help make the S.C.O. a worthwhile organization at our school. Mrs. March has sponsored the seventh grade since her four years here at Alliance. For all of your interest in us and for all the help you've given us, we dedicate this book to you.

Above: Lawrence Baker belonged to Miss Averill on Slave Day. Top right: Mara Lea Crimm helps out in the kitchen every Friday. Maybe it's because she likes the hamburgers?! Right: Everyone loves lunch!

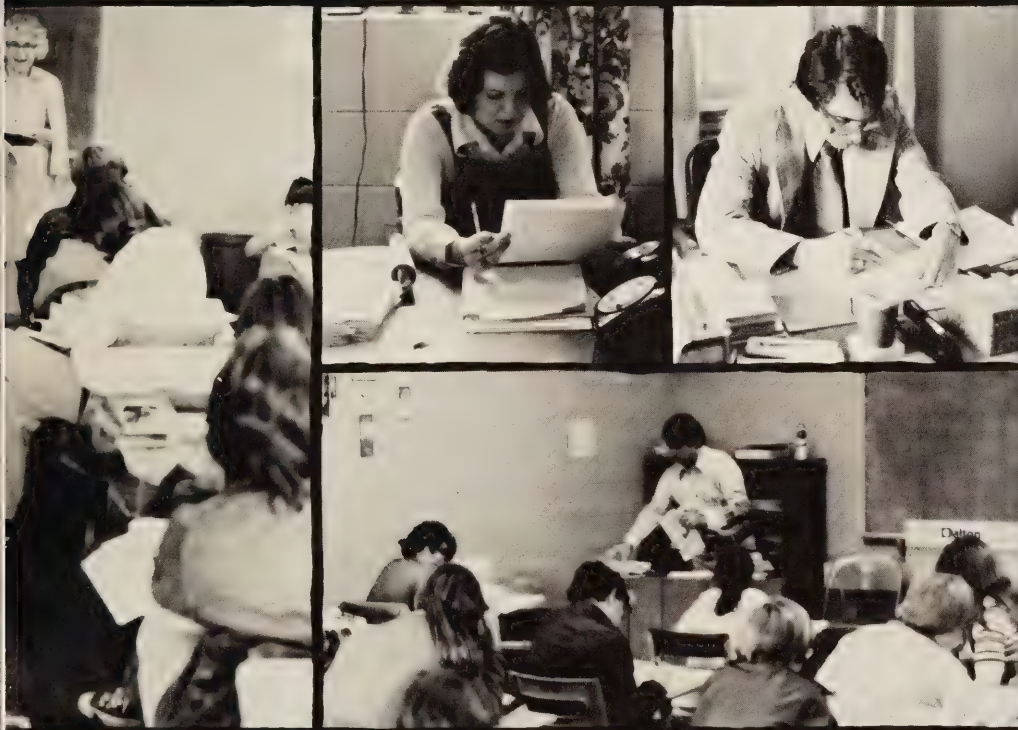

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Verbyla, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, and Mr. Ballance,

The Senior Class of 1978 would like to thank you for all you have done for us. The love and devotion you have shown to us over the years will forever be remembered; the patience and caring you have taught us will never be forgotten. And we hope that when you look back over the years that you might still remember each one of us in some way and remember the love and devotion that we also hold for you.

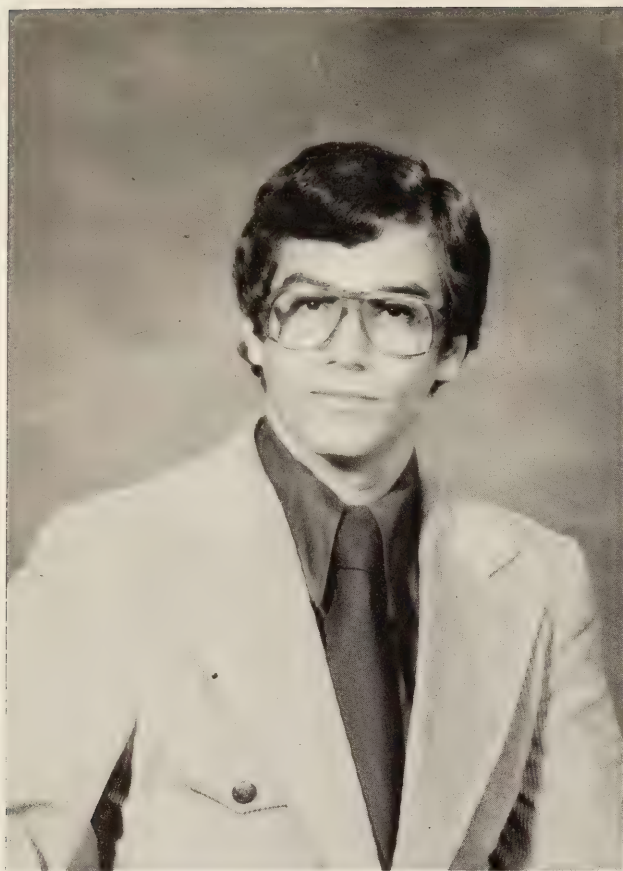

With our love,
"Your Kids!"

CLASS PROPHECY

The slogan for the Class of '78 has been, "We are mighty, we are great, we're the class of '78!" However, it could read later in history: "We are mighty, we are great, but always late, the class of '78!" As we view this group five or ten years from now, we may find many things — some have changed, and some have not. Roni Arban is now a professional league softball player, and also is the manager of the New Bad News Bears. Janet Carter is operating her own photograph studio and has, of course, the A.C.H.S. account. On the side, she and David and the little one are owners of the "Flume Ride" at Virginia Beach.

Tammy Shaw is still having fights with Ben Cross but at least they are married now, and he can't get away so easy. Tammy runs her own fire station and helps her husband with his drafting office. Rachel Ford, after leaving, or should we say graduating from Oral Roberts University, is now working for the Social Services Welfare Board of Virginia. Rachel is now a Welfare Mom and she still thinks Jimmy Carter is a great President?! Buddy Keeter is now operating his own FRO Shop in New York City. His car still gets flats once a week and he is still learning how to play basketball and chew gum at the same time. Clifton Stowe will still be trying to get out of Old Dominion University but has decided that a college career is O.K. anyway. He is still driving the old truck; it now has 195,000 miles on it. Billy Raiford and Stowe have decided to open up their own C.B. shop but can't seem to decide on a name for it. Cindy Nicholls has finally learned to talk; in fact, she has not stopped since she graduated. She now owns a professional speech school in California. Pat Hillard is finally out of college, one way or another. He forgot if he graduated or not. He is now the owner of his own accounting firm and handles all the books for the largest Christian High School in the state, A.C.H.S. He is married, he thinks. If he is not sure about his marriage, JoLynn is. We always knew what that "girl dressed in blue" could do. That is, could do whatever it takes to remind Pat he is married. JoLynn is now an English professor at Union College, Tennessee.

Randy Midgette, after being married to Nancy Ault twice, finally decided to give up being a full time janitor and go to New York where Buddy gives him a job in his FRO Shop. This is after Randy first tries out for the New York Knicks Volleyball team and all other pro teams in New York. Patty Schools has managed not to have one accident since graduation. She is now the reading lab teacher at A.C.H.S. and she now understands how we all feel as teachers. Brian Presson has had three hit songs and seems to be all tied up in his guitar strings. When last seen he was operating his own recording studio. Gary Terrell is still into books and things. Every now and then he goes over to his first love's house, Dot Noble, to either ask her forgiveness or her hand in marriage. Joyce Goodrum is still studying hard and now has become the basketball coach at Alliance. During the summer, she and Jim just operate their farm in Suffolk — milk the cows, collect the eggs, etc.

Annette Boutwell has been elected Miss Bowers Hill three times and refuses to give up the crown, even though she is now married and has two kids. She is now principal of the Tinker Bell School. Jimmy Antley is now in the Shipyard School still after five years. Jimmy is captain of the Shipyard Football Team, not much pay but fun at least. He and Allison are still as far apart as ever and he still does not know why. Watch out for those flag poles and school teachers that drive, Jimmy! Brad Taylor, not sure of his college has been to three — Taylor University, Old Dominion University and finally Nyack. He is now driving the truck for his dad and living at Nags Head in the summer. He has only run into one pole since his senior year at A.C.H.S. Now for Bonnie Beacham with her new nick-name "Knees" or "No-Knees." She has finally decided to become a nurse since she is always breaking something anyway. She is now on the mission field in Africa with her new FRO style from Keeter's place in New York. She decided she did not need to go to Cindy's speech school since she still out talks everyone.

Mary Bradshaw is now graduated from Old Dominion University and has her masters in economics. She has just been appointed as one of the economic advisors to our new President, Miss Amy Carter. Neal Woodard decided to open up his own discount (20% off) Piece Goods Store. The only problem he seems to have is arriving at the store in time enough to open it. That is because he is too busy closing down his Shell station an hour or two early each night. Sandy Backus and Judi Pate, after finishing college, are teaching school and working for the Social Services Board. Sandy is a real swinger going to all the big discos in town. As for Judi, she has met many new men in her life but is still undecided between W.K. and S.A. They also own a ski resort with Rachel Ford in Virginia.

This concludes the rather unusual class of 1978's story. See what a success they all have been! Many memories will follow this class as they face life, and it is the hope, dream and prayer of this school that each one of them will remember "the good old days" and will allow God to be their guide in whatever form of work they go into. Their slogan should always be "We are mighty, we are great, we're the Class of '78!"

FRESHMEN INITIATION ENDS WITH DONKEY COURT Judge Freeland Presiding

Right: You can't have Donkey Court without a donkey!
Below: Bonnie Beacham and Randy Midgette go over the case at hand with Judge Earl Freeland.

Left: The jury (all Seniors of course!) listen attentively to the case. Above: Mr. Thompson, the bailiff, introduces the judge.

Top: Prosecuting Attorney Randy Midgette reviews the facts with Robert Shortridge. Center: The jury deliberates and finds the defendant guilty. Bottom: The Sentence — He must kiss the hand of every Senior girl. Above right: The entire Freshmen Class was sentenced to run the length of the field and back with their trash cans over their heads because they disobeyed the Seniors. Right: Peggy McFadden was sentenced to propose to Mr. Zirkle.

Marti Paradee certainly is enjoying herself.

LeAnn Minter and Diana Camarillo look at their awards.

SPRING CHORUS BANQUET

Above left: Mrs. Kautz hands out certificates. Her husband, John, is sitting beside her. Above right: Everyone enjoyed the banquet held at the Pine Tree Inn in Va. Beach. Bottom left: Janet Carter and Roni Arban have found something amusing. Bottom center: That was Wes Kirkpatrick's head at the end of the table so here's the front! Bottom right: Neal Woodard is about to be served.

GROUND BREAKING CEREMONY

On March 6, 1978 we broke ground. The ceremony was preceeded by a special chapel in which the Chorus sang "We've Come This Far By Faith" and presented Rev. Freeland with a banner (pictured below) in the school colors of red and gold. City Councilman Jack Barnes was on hand to help break ground, along with Mr. Robert E.

Verbyla representing the school Board of Directors and Mrs. Martha Matthews, P.T.O. President. The new structure will contain a new library facility and four classrooms, as well as new offices for the high school.

Mrs. Matthews, Rev. Freeland, Mr. Verbyla, and Jack Barnes prepare to break ground for the new building.

Rev. Freeland and Jack Barnes turn the first shovelfull of dirt together.

Mrs. Matthews, President of the P.T.O., gets her turn too.

The S.C.O. was the sponsor for all the activities during Homecoming week. There was a lot of school spirit and all activities were supported. Prizes for the spirit chains were: Most Beautiful — Seniors, Best Effort — Sophomores, Hardest Color to Work With — Freshmen, and the Longest was a tie between the 7th and the 8th Grades. Honorable Mention went to the Juniors. Poster Contest winners were the 7th Grade for the Most Posters. Most Original went to 8th Grader Roger Alford for his "Star Wars" poster, and Honorable Mention went to Nancie Harris, a Sophomore, for her "Falcons Victorious" poster. Bonnie Beacham was the Mistress of Ceremonies for the half-time festivities on Homecoming night.

Below: Everyone helps decorate the gym for Homecoming night. Opposite: Nancy Ault and Randy Midgette are "50's Day Cuties" and were caught here trying to hide the Seniors' spirit chain.

HOMEcoming REPRESENTATIVES, left to right: Esther Kidd, 8th Grade, escorted by Shawn Presson; Brenda Hathaway, 10th Grade, escorted by Rodney Caprio; Marti Paradee, 11th Grade, escorted by Bob Brent; JoLynn Hunderup, 12th Grade, escorted by Pat Hillard; Tammy Shaw, 12th Grade, escorted by Ben Cross; Nancy Ault, 12th Grade, escorted by Randy Midgette; Janice Antley, 10th Grade, escorted by Brad Taylor; Marcia Kraatz, 9th Grade, escorted by Max Fish; Ann Stovall, 8th Grade, escorted by Brian Kampman. My year's reign as Miss Alliance began with an enjoyable evening of fun and excitement. I had the chance to work and practice with the other contestants. Upon being chosen as Miss Alliance 1977, I received a beautiful trophy which now is proudly displayed on my fireplace mantle. It will always serve as a cherished reminder of my year as Miss Alliance. I didn't win a car or a four-year college scholarship. I didn't tour the world or meet the President. In fact, I didn't even go to the White House. But, I did have the opportunity to get to know everyone at school better and to help with the arrangements for the pageant this year. Best of all, I was privileged to represent my school as the first MISS ALLIANCE. It was a great experience for me and I hope that this year's queen will have the fun that I had.

MISS ALLIANCE PAGEANT

The second annual Miss Alliance Pageant was held May 4, 1978. The Master of Ceremonies was Pat Hillard and the 1977 Miss Alliance, Brenda Hathaway, assisted him. There were twelve contestants selected to represent their grades. The contestants competed in areas of summer wear, evening gown, and their part in the production number. They were scored by their personality, poise and appearance. The girls themselves chose Miss Congeniality, the contestant whom they thought showed the most spirit and best personality during the pageant weeks. Marti Paradee won this honor and received a beautiful silver tray as her award. The 1978 Miss Alliance was Tammy Shaw. She received a lovely trophy, crown, and a dozen red roses. Tammy will certainly make an excellent representative as Miss Alliance. The pageant coordinators were Janet Carter and Marcia Stacey.

The girls do their rendition of "Take Me Out To The Ball Game."

Entertainment was provided by Brian Presson and Glenn Lewis as they sang "Summertime" and "Summer Breeze."

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET WAS "SOMEWHERE OVER THE RAINBOW" AT THE HOLIDAY INN OCEANFRONT

The Junior-Senior banquet for the graduating class of 1978 was held at the Holiday Inn-Oceanfront. The theme for the night was "Somewhere Over The Rainbow." Entertainment was provided by Glenn Lewis, Chuck Conti, Belinda Beale, and Troy Anselmo. Janice Kipp presented gifts to each of the Seniors. The banquet was followed by the Harbor Tour in Hampton where a reception was held on board, with a special cake for the Seniors.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, JIMMY ANTLEY, do hereby will:

- my ability to argue with opposing baseball coaches to Coach Walker.
- my ability to hit a home run to Rick Scott.
- my ability to out-jump basketball players taller than I to Dennis See.

I, RONI ARBAN, do hereby will:

- my ability to speak outward to Steve Porter who never speaks at all.
- my ability to skip Mrs. Peebles class every other day to anyone who has her two periods a day.

I, SANDY BACKUS, do hereby will:

- my height to Diane Wills who needs a little bit.
- my shorthand ability to Patti Paramore who has it anyway.
- my parking place to anyone who has the energy to walk to and from it.

I, BONNIE BEACHAM, do hereby will:

- my humbleness to drive a '62 Falcon to school to Chip Smith.
- my long, straight hair to Diana Camarillo who has such a problem with hers.

I, ANNETTE BOUTWELL, do hereby will:

- my ability to arrive at school on time to Nancy Ault who drifts in late every day.
- my ability to do homework to Billy Arnold who has never taken a book home in his life.
- my ability not to lose my temper to Mrs. Edwards who cannot teach class without banging the erasers against the blackboard.

I, MARY BRADSHAW, do hereby will:

- my ability to be absent and still make good grades to Wade Pitsenbarger for obvious reasons.
- my ability to be reasonably quiet to the Junior Class who needs all the help they can get in that department.

I, JANET CARTER, do hereby will:

- all my good times at Alliance to my brother who (most of the time) deserves the best.
- all the 96 pages of the Shield to anybody who has enough patience to put up with Marcia.
- all my headaches and the rest of my Excedrin to Lurch because he's the one who game them to me.
- to Marcia Stacey, all the memories of our good times together and the hope that our friendship won't be forgotten.

I, RACHEL FORD, do hereby will:

- my quiet nature to Sandy Collins and Joyce Bowen.
- all the empty seats in third year Spanish to the second year class.
- my courage to ski down the advanced slope at Massanutten to Mr. Ballance.

I, JOYCE GOODRUM, do hereby will:

- my typing ability to anyone who is worse at it than I am.
- my place on the bench at girls basketball games to Melanie Fitzgerald, so that she will always have a place to sit down.

I, PAT HILLARD, do hereby will:

- my collection of great jokes to Donald Porter who needs them badly.
- my ability to forget important things to Mr. Ballance.

I, JOLYNN HUNDERUP, do hereby will:

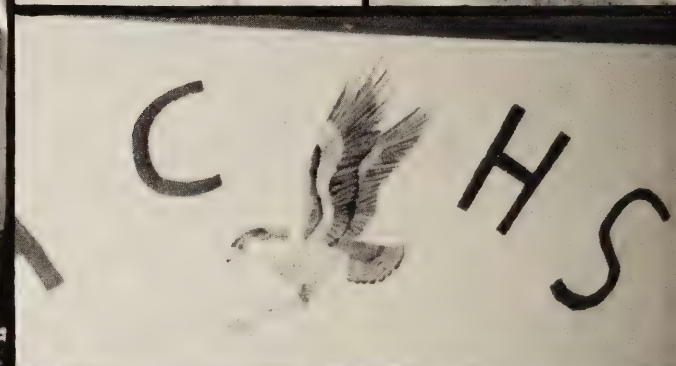

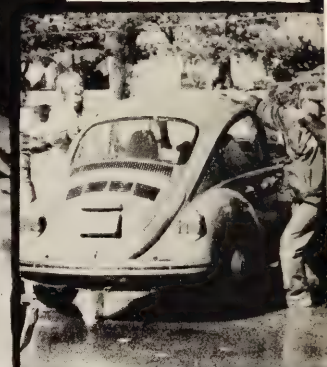

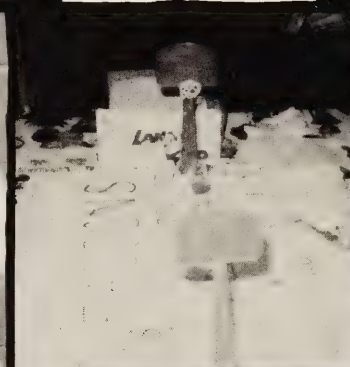

- my ability to maintain an average of 100% for an entire six weeks to Billy Seiber, who apparently does a good job of failing for an entire six weeks.
- my ability to wear a dress to school, and not mind it, to Gina Sawyer who apparently has none to wear.
- my awards, accomplishments, and good times to all future students of A.C.H.S.

- I, BUDDY KEETER, do hereby will:
my ability to joke on people to Lowell Johnson.
- I, CINDY NICHOLLS, do hereby will:
my ability to keep quiet to Janice Kipp who never knew that "Silence is Golden."
my shorthand ability to anyone who takes it worse than I do.
- I, JUDI PATE, do hereby will:
my ability to get to school on time to Patti Paramore who seems to have just as much trouble.
my basketball ability to Lowell Johnson who plays like he has most of it already.
my ability to pass Trig to anyone who dares take it.
- I, BRIAN PRESSON, do hereby will:
my singing ability and my ability to exceed the speed limit without being caught, to Wes Kirkpatrick who will never drive again anyway.
my ability not to miss more than ten days of school in a year to Marti Paradee who probably only came to school ten days this year.
- I, BILLY RAIFORD, do hereby will:
my ability to rarely ever study and still pass to Robert Shortridge.
my typing ability to Willie Leitner.
- I, PATTY SCHOOLS, do hereby will:
my ability to have accidents every other day to Renee Wilkins, who everyone would love to see fall just once.
my typing ability to Janice Kipp who manages to hit the right key at the wrong time, or the wrong key at the right time.
- I, TAMMY SHAW, do hereby will:
my good grades to Max Fish, who apparently has never made the Honor Roll in his life.
my ability to be picked on and still be alive to Wendy Ross, who will be picked on for the rest of her life.
all my happiness and accomplishments to my sister Theresa, who I am sure will have enough of her own.
- I, CLIFTON STOWE, do hereby will:
my ability to be fourteenth in the class to Chip Smith because there are only thirteen in his class anyway.
my ability to talk teachers out of just about anything to Steve Porter.
my ability to pick up the lunch count and bother the teachers to Robbie Reid who does both most of the time anyway.
- I, BRAD TAYLOR, do hereby will:
my ability to be late and always have a good excuse to Todd Hagwood, who has used the excuse "The traffic was bad." for five years.
my light hair to Janice Antley who has to use artificial methods.
- I, GARY TERRELL, do hereby will:
my ability to make good grades to Mike Kittrell.
my title of "Bookworm" to Shawn Presson.
- I, NEAL WOODARD, do hereby will:
my shy, quiet personality to Steve Porter who always causes such a scene.
my ability to skip school and always get caught to Marti Paradee, who's Monday sicknesses have gotten to be a tradition.
my outstanding basketball ability to Janice Kipp who has it all anyway.
- I, RANDY MIDGETTE, do hereby will:
my ability to be my self and have a good time at school to Nancy Ault.
my ability to find the right girl to Dennis See, who seems to have the wrong idea.
and to the Junior Class, I leave my ability to stand up for what I believe in, because you're going to need all the help you can get.
